

1 OCTOBER

- 1 St Teresa of Lisieux, in northern France, was a young Carmelite Sister who died at the age of 24. She said: "I will spend my time in heaven doing good on earth." Today is her feastday.
- 2 Teresa was aware that most of us will never achieve anything great or be well-known. Her "little way" (as she called it) was to choose to live in a loving way her ordinary daily life, no matter how monotonous it might be.
- 3 When somebody was annoying her, Teresa set out to think of that person's qualities and good intentions. "You've always got a smile for me," remarked someone who, in fact, always irritated her! "My vocation, my calling," Teresa said "is to love." Whatever was frustrating and annoying in daily life she offered to God to be transformed into something good for other people.
- 4 Teresa said: "Love can do all things. Our Lord does not look so much at the greatness of our actions - or even at their difficulty - as at the love with which we do them."
- 5 She was often ill - and she would die of tuberculosis when she was only 24. She realised that, as quiet and hidden suffering and sacrifice is offered to God, it is transformed into being of help to other people.
- 6 "My little way," she wrote "is the way of childhood - the way of trust and absolute self-surrender. In my little way, everything is most ordinary. Jesus will transform us."
- 7 Let us pray:

Lord Jesus,
you told your friends
not to worry about the future. Mt 6³⁴

You showed them
how to have the attitude of simple trust Mk 10¹⁵
that young children have,
so that they could place themselves into the caring hands of our Father.
And so
I ask for the power of your Spirit that I may remain positive throughout all that is ordinary in my daily life.
I know that your touch
can change people and situations, and so I ask you to join me in offering to our Father not only the good things of this day but also the suffering and sacrifices that I want to offer
cheerfully and lovingly,
and in a quiet and hidden way.
And so I pray that everything
- including what is not to my liking - may be transformed in your presence for the benefit of other people.
Amen.
